Privacy Policy of LLC "Agency "Social Networks""

This Privacy Policy ("Privacy Policy") of Limited Liability Company "Agency "Social Networks"" (hereinafter — "Operator") is drawn up in accordance with the requirements of Federal Law No. 152-FZ dated 27.07.2006 "On Personal Data" (hereinafter — "Personal Data Law") and defines the procedure for processing personal data and measures to ensure the security of personal data of Users of the RUN.ID service, available at <https://run-id.ru> (hereinafter — "Service").

This Privacy Policy regarding the processing of personal data applies to all information that the Operator may receive from Users of the Service, including information transmitted during registration, use of the mobile and web application, uploading of training data, and subscribing to digital membership.

Registration in the Service and use of its functions (uploading trainings, participating in segments, purchasing membership) requires the User to provide personal data to the extent necessary for the operation of the relevant function of the Service.

By using the Service, the User acknowledges that they have carefully read this Privacy Policy and the conditions for processing their personal data described herein, and gives consent to the processing of their personal data by the Operator on the terms specified in this Privacy Policy, acting freely, of their own will and in their own interest.

Key Definitions

Automated processing of personal data — processing of personal data using computer equipment.

Blocking of personal data — temporary suspension of personal data processing (except where processing is necessary to clarify personal data).

Service — the set of graphic and information materials, as well as computer programs and databases (web application and mobile application), ensuring their availability on the internet at <https://run-id.ru>.

Personal data information system — a set of personal data contained in databases, and the information technologies and technical means that ensure their processing.

De-identification of personal data — actions that make it impossible, without the use of additional information, to determine the ownership of personal data to a specific User or other subject of personal data.

Processing of personal data — any action (operation) or set of actions (operations) performed with or without the use of automation tools with personal data, including collection, recording, systematization, accumulation, storage, clarification (updating, changing), extraction, use, transfer (distribution, provision, access), de-identification, blocking, deletion, destruction of personal data.

Operator — a state body, municipal body, legal entity or individual that independently or jointly with other persons organizes and/or carries out the processing of personal data, and determines the purposes of personal data processing, the composition of personal data to be processed, and the actions (operations) performed with personal data.

Personal data — any information relating directly or indirectly to a specific or identifiable User of the Service.

User — any individual registered in the Service or otherwise using its functions.

Provision of personal data — actions aimed at disclosing personal data to a specific person or a specific group of persons.

Distribution of personal data — any actions aimed at disclosing personal data to an indefinite group of persons (transfer of personal data) or acquainting an unlimited group of persons with personal data, including publication of personal data in mass media, placement in information and telecommunication networks, or providing access to personal data in any other way. Distribution within the Service includes, in particular, the display of the User's trainings, statistics, and profile to other users in accordance with the privacy settings chosen by the User.

Destruction of personal data — any actions as a result of which personal data is irretrievably destroyed with the impossibility of further restoring the content of the personal data in the personal data information system and/or as a result of which the material carriers of personal data are destroyed.

Composition, Collection, and Processing of Personal Data

The Operator processes personal data with and without the use of automation tools.

The Operator collects personal data provided by the User during registration and use of the Service.

Composition of personal data:

- User's full name, username (nickname), profile avatar;
- email address, mobile phone number;
- date of birth, gender (if provided by the User);
- geolocation data and GPS track data obtained from training files (.fit / .gpx) uploaded by the User, or entered manually;
- training data: distance, pace, time, elevation gain, heart rate, cadence, calories, and other metrics contained in the uploaded files;
- data on digital membership subscription and payments made, to the extent transmitted by the Operator's payment partner (bank card details are not transmitted to or stored by the Operator);
- information about interaction with other Users of the Service (follows, likes, comments) to the extent determined by the profile's privacy settings;
- technical data: IP address, cookie data, browser and device type, data on the use of the Service.

The Operator draws attention to the fact that heart rate data and other physiological indicators contained in training files uploaded by the User constitute a special category of personal data related to health status, and are processed with the User's separate consent, provided upon uploading the first training.

Collection of the above data occurs when the User:

- registers in the Service using an email address, phone number, or through third-party authorization services;
- fills in and edits their profile data;
- uploads a training file or enters training data manually;
- purchases digital membership in the Service;
- contacts the Operator's support service.

By using the Service, the User acknowledges that registration and use of the Service is regarded by the Operator and the User as written consent to the processing of personal data under the terms of this Privacy Policy. Use of the Service without accepting the terms of this Privacy Policy is not permitted.

Purposes of Collecting and Processing Personal Data

Personal data is collected for the following purposes:

- registering the User and providing access to the Service's functions;
- processing and displaying the User's training data, including route map, statistics, and segments;
- ensuring the social functions of the Service (activity feed, follows, leaderboards) in accordance with the User's privacy settings;
- providing access to digital membership and the partner privileges catalog of the Operator;
- processing payments for digital membership through the Operator's payment partner;
- sending the User service notifications related to the use of the Service;
- for other purposes based on the User's requests or consent, unless otherwise provided by law.

The Operator is permitted to use the data provided by the User for statistical research and calculations, as well as to obtain information about what interests Users of the Service, provided that the protection of personal data remains the primary requirement when working with such data.

Access to Personal Data

Access to personal data is provided to authorized persons of the Operator with whom appropriate personal data confidentiality agreements have been concluded.

Authorized persons have the right to access only the personal data necessary to perform the specific functions within their duties, in order to achieve the purposes of personal data processing specified in this Privacy Policy.

Access to personal data may be granted to regulatory and audit authorities upon presentation of documents on the basis of which they conduct an inspection.

Training data, profile, and statistics of the User may be accessible to other Users of the Service to the extent determined by the privacy settings independently set by the User in their profile.

Storage and Transfer of Personal Data

Servers of the Operator and servers under the control of Russian companies acting on behalf of the Operator and responsible for the processing of personal data are used to store personal data; the Operator has entered into an agreement with such companies under which they undertake to comply with all provisions on the protection of personal data (hereinafter — "partner").

Neither the Operator nor its partners transfer the User's personal data to third parties in any form, except where such transfer is carried out on the basis of the User's consent or in cases provided for by law. Partners to whom personal data is transferred, to the extent necessary to provide the relevant service, include the payment system operator used by the Operator to accept payments for digital membership. The Operator controls the use of the provided personal data and is responsible for such use.

The Operator undertakes not to disclose the personal data received from the User. Providing personal data to partners for the purpose of fulfilling obligations to Users is not considered a breach of this obligation. Disclosure of personal data in accordance with reasonable and applicable legal requirements is not considered a breach of obligations.

Protection of Personal Data

The Operator has the appropriate capabilities and takes measures aimed at ensuring the security and confidentiality of the User's personal data. The Operator undertakes to ensure the confidentiality of personal data in accordance with internal regulations on personal data protection and applicable regulatory requirements of the Russian Federal Service for Technical and Export Control (FSTEC); partners undertake to ensure the confidentiality of personal data in accordance with personal data processing agreements.

Retention Period of Personal Data

The Operator stores personal data either until the personal data is no longer necessary for the purposes of collection and processing specified in this Privacy Policy, or until the User revokes their consent to the processing of their personal data, or until all applicable legal and regulatory requirements have been met (for example, in the case of ongoing litigation).

Rights Regarding the Protection of Personal Data

Right to information, right of access, and right to rectification. The User has the right to receive all information about their personal data, to access their personal data, and to correct and update personal data in the Operator's system if the User believes that the personal data is outdated, incomplete, or inaccurate.

Right to erasure. The User has the right to request the deletion of their personal data from the Operator's system, including deletion of their profile and associated training data.

Right to restriction of processing and to object. The User has the right to request the restriction of processing of certain categories of personal data and to object to the processing of personal data.

Right to withdraw consent. The User has the right to withdraw their consent to the processing of their personal data at any time, including the separate consent for the processing of health-related data referred to in the section "Composition, Collection, and Processing of Personal Data".

Right to data portability. The User has the right to request that the Operator return their personal data to them.

Destruction and Blocking of Personal Data

The Operator is obliged to destroy the User's personal data (or ensure its destruction) in the following cases:

- when the User provides evidence confirming that the personal data was illegally obtained or is not necessary for the stated purpose of processing — within seven business days from the date such evidence is provided;
- when unlawful processing of personal data is detected, if it is impossible to ensure its lawfulness — within ten business days from the date the unlawful processing is detected;
- upon achievement of the purpose of personal data processing — within thirty days from the date the purpose of processing is achieved;
- upon withdrawal by the User of consent to the processing of their personal data, and if further retention of the personal data is no longer required for the purposes of processing — within thirty days.

If it is not possible to destroy personal data within the above deadlines, the Operator blocks such personal data (or ensures its blocking, if processing is carried out by another person acting on the Operator's instructions) and ensures the destruction of personal data within a period of no more than six months, unless a different period is established by federal laws.

Use of Cookie Files

Cookies are files or pieces of information that may be stored on your computer (or other internet-compatible devices, such as a smartphone or tablet) when you visit the Service. Such files may store various information, such as browser type, operating system used, language settings or other personal page settings, data on your use of the Service, or login data. Cookies are generally not used to collect data that directly identifies an individual. However, information obtained through cookies may be correlated with an individual at the moment such individual's personal information is provided in combination with information such as an email address.

Cookies are used to:

- customize the content of Service pages according to User preferences, and optimize the Service; in particular, these files allow us to recognize your device and adjust the display of the Service page to your individual needs;
- create statistics that help understand how Users use the Service, allowing us to improve the structure and content of the Service;
- maintain the User's session on the Service (after logging in), so that Users do not have to re-enter their login and password on each page.

By using our Service, you consent to the use of cookies.

Liability

Persons found guilty of violating the rules governing the collection, processing, and protection of personal data bear liability established by Russian legislation.

Final Provisions

This Privacy Policy is valid indefinitely from the moment of its publication. The Operator has the right to amend this Privacy Policy. When amendments are made, the date of the last update is indicated in the current version. The new version of the Privacy Policy comes into force from the moment of its publication, unless otherwise provided by the new version.

Withdrawal of consent to the processing of personal data may be carried out by the User sending a corresponding written request to the postal or email address specified in the "Contact Details" section of this Privacy Policy.

This Privacy Policy and the relations between the User and the Operator arising in connection with the application of this Privacy Policy are governed by the substantive and procedural law of the Russian Federation.
